

ELC

CILL SEMINAR SERIES

Topic: Nietzsche, Freud and Marx:
How geniuses read, and how to read like them

Date: 19 October 2011 (Wed)

Time: 4:30 to 5:30 pm
(including Q & A)

Room: A 302

Speaker: Mr Alfred Lee

Come along on Wednesday 19 October to find out how you can read like Nietzsche, Freud and Marx, three post-modern geniuses who challenged the ideas of Plato and many other Western philosophers. Each of their methods will be summed up for you in ONE word, and in THREE easy steps you will understand how to read the works of a genius and read like a genius. This fascinating workshop will expose secrets and reveal shortcuts to greatness, freedom and fun.

Mr Alfred Lee, currently a language instructor at ELC and nicknamed 'book dragon' by his friends (a slight Cantonese variation on 'bookworm'), says that he consumes books to "lose gravity". Drop in to find out what he means by this, and enjoy a stimulating hour in the company of the book dragon.

Registration:

Please call 2766-7493 (Ms Polly Chan)
to reserve a place.

Email: eccill@inet.polyu.edu.hk