

4:30pm - 5:30pm

Block Y, Room Y301

Round table discussion: The challenges of the 4-year curriculum for
English Language Centres in Hong Kong

Prof Joseph CHANEY

The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Professor Joseph Chaney is currently a Fulbright Scholar in the Office of University General Education at the Chinese University of Hong Kong. He is a former chair of the Department of English at Indiana University South Bend, where he also served as the Director of General Education from 2005-2009. He has taught academic writing for 20 years.

Prof Paul HANSTEDT

The Hong Kong Institute of Education

Professor Paul Hanstedt is the Fulbright Scholar in General Education at Hong Kong IEd. His teaching and writing focus on writing practices, and his current work involves collaborations with professors from psychology, biology, and mathematics. He has taught writing of various kinds for more than two decades.

Dr Jane LOCKWOOD

The Hong Kong Institute of Education

Dr. Jane Lockwood is currently Director of the Centre for Language in Education at the Hong Kong Institute of Education. She is responsible for the overall educational strategic direction of the CLE and has a particular research interest in EAP/ESP curriculum development and language assessment practices in tertiary and workplace settings.

Dr Arthur MCNEILL

Hong Kong University of Science and Technology

Dr. Arthur McNeill is Director of the Language Centre at Hong Kong University of Science and Technology. He has served as Director of several university English language centres, including the Chinese University of Hong Kong and the Universities of Surrey, Sussex and Dundee in UK. His academic interests include second language vocabulary and teacher language awareness. He was principal investigator of a recently completed project to develop an English vocabulary curriculum for Hong Kong schools.