

"I"

by D am a brother and son.

Born into this world like you.

Walking through life, forging my own path.

am a student.

Stressed and burnt out like you.

Constantly wondering how to balance my life.

A social star, bringing light into the lives of all.

Full of energy. Passion. Never falling.

am not any of these things.

At least, not to me.

What makes me these things?

It's hard to see.

Don't know if it can be.

I am everything that I don't think I can be.
